The annual PhD WR Symposium will take place on the 11th and 12th of February 2018. Each student is required to submit a paper (co-authored with supervisor team) which reflects an aspect of their research – Literature Review, Theoretical Framework, or Empirical Work.

Proposed Contents:

Your submission should ideally cover the following elements:

- » A maximum of 200-word abstract summarising the story of the paper.
- » An introduction section including:
 - A viable research issue with specific aim and objectives.
 - What is the intended outcome(s)?
- » A cohesive literature review explaining the context of the research and current work in the field (e.g. Level 1, 2 etc. you may conclude by Literature Review findings).
- » A research proposition and/or research questions (Level 2).
- » Research methodology and context (Levels 2 and 3).
- » Final discussion and analysis, in addition to results (Levels 3 and 3+).

Maximum Length:

7000 words max (including a 200-word abstract and excluding references list).

Format:

All papers must be in MS WORD format, adhering to the guidelines that can be found in attached the PhD without Residence paper template.

Note:

- » Papers should be written in collaboration with the supervisory team (co-authored).

» It should not be a miniature version or a direct section from the thesis and has to be approached as a self-contained article.

All PhD students are required to submit and present at the annual symposium and any queries should be addressed to your supervisors
