

1 Add title like (Introduction, literature Review.....etc.)

Use the same font you can copy and paste your text here. After pasting your text the citation will appear between [] as the following example [13,2] Add text Add text Add text Add text Add text Add text Add text Add text Add text Add text Add text Add text [10].

2 Literature Review

Use the same font you can copy and paste your text here. After pasting your text the citation will appear between [] as the following example [13,2] Add text Add text Add text Add text Add text Add text Add text Add text Add text Add text Add text Add text [10].

3 Research Methodology

Use the same font you can copy and paste your text here. After pasting your text the citation will appear between [] as the following example [13,2] Add text Add text Add text Add text Add text Add text Add text Add text Add text Add text Add text Add text [10]. Tables can be cited and prepared as follow:
Table 1 shows the sample techniques analysis.

Table 1. Sample Techniques Analysis

Technique Used	Simple Average Method
Charts	Pie Charts
Sample Size	One Hundred
Data Collection Method	Questionnaire
Mode of Collection	Direct, Telephone, E-mails

References

(you can follow the following style in preparing your references list)

1. Abraham, A. (2007) "Student-centred teaching of accounting to engineering students: Comparing blended learning and traditional approaches", Faculty of Commerce-Papers, University of Wollongong, 435: 1-11
2. Akkoyunlu, B. & Soylu M.Y. (2008) "A study of student's perceptions in a blended learning environment based on different learning styles", Educational Technology & Society, vol. 11, no.1: 183-193
3. Arbaugh, J.B., Desai, A., Rau, B. & Sridhar, B.S. (2010) "A review of research on online and blended learning in the management disciplines: 1994–2009", Organization Management Journal, vol.7, no. 1: 39-55