6. REGISTRATION PROCEDURE, EXAMINATION AND GRADING

6.1 REGISTRATION

All students must register for each regular semester (first and second) continuously after admission to the university. Each student is assigned to a personalized programme study plan which lists the courses along with the number of credits required for the student to complete every semester to complete the academic degree in the appropriate length of study.

The registration team within the Directorate of Admission and Registration will offer all the courses in ADREG for students to register during the set pre-registration period in the academic calendar. The registration team and the student advisor provide the student with academic guidance to help them register in courses.

6.2 ADDING AND DROPPING COURSES

Students are allowed to add and drop courses during the Add and Drop period as specified in the Academic Calendar, which normally falls during the first week of the semester. Following the Add and Drop period, students may withdraw from their courses, but the letter "W" will be inscribed on their records. For further information, please refer to the withdrawal policy.

6.3 CREDIT HOUR SYSTEM

Courses are weighted in terms of credit hours. One semester credit hour is equivalent to 15 lecture hours per academic semester, or from 30 to 45 laboratory or training hours.

Courses are designated by an index of three numbers. The first number refers to lecture hours per week, the second to laboratory hours and the third to credit hours.

Thus, if a course is indexed with (3-2-4) for example, this means that 3 stands for lecture hours per week per semester, 2 stands for laboratory hours per week per semester, and 4 is the sum of lectures and laboratory hours in terms of credits.

6.4 GRADING SYSTEMS

The university adopts a letter grading system that includes plus (+) and minus (-) indicators. The following table, which should be used as a guideline, shows each letter grade with its equivalence in terms of grade points and percentage:

LETTER GRADE	GRADE POINTS	GRADE POINTS
A	4.00	100-90
A-	3.67	89-87
B+	3.33	86-84
B	3.00	83-80
B-	2.67	79-77
C+	2.33	76-74
C	2.00	73-70
C-	1.67	69-67
D+	1.33	66-64
D	1.00	63-60
F	0.00	Below 60

Five more letter symbols are in use: "W", "I", "IF", "IG" and "IP".

"W" stands for Withdrawal.

"I" stands for incomplete work and is normally awarded to students who do not fulfil all course requirements by the end of the semester and who present a valid excuse acceptable to the course instructor. The grade of "I" is assigned by the course instructor and not the student.

The course requirements must be completed any time before the end of the following semester. If within the designated time period the student fails to complete/attend his/her final exam the "I" is converted to "IF" grade. In case where student is still missing any other course requirements (e.g. quizzes, assignments, etc.) the student's final grade will be calculated based on those requirements that have been met. "IG" (In Progress) grade is assigned to students who are still working on their dissertation/final project, and is governed by the same rules as the "I" grade, but it is converted to "IW" designating a failure in completing requirement. "IP" grade is assigned to students who pass their dissertation or internship.

6.5 GRADE POINT AVERAGE (GPA)

The Grade Point Average (GPA) is an index representing the students' academic achievement. The computation of the GPA is determined as follows:

1. Each letter grade is assigned grade points (Refer to Grading Systems).
2. These points are multiplied by the credit hours of the corresponding course to obtain "quality points" for each course.
3. The total quality points are divided by the total semester credit hours officially undertaken by the student. A GPA may range from 0.00 to 4.00; calculations are carried only to two decimal points.

For purposes of academic evaluation, two types of GPA are used:

- Semester GPA which is based on courses taken during any given semester.
- Cumulative GPA (CGPA) which is based on all the academic work taken at the university, thus far.

6.6 CHALLENGE OF GRADE

Upon submission of a Challenge-of-Grade Form and payment of any stipulated fees, students have the right to challenge their end-of-semester grades provided that the deadline to challenge has not been exceeded.

The deadline for challenging a grade is the end of the subsequent semester to the semester in which the challenged grade was awarded. For the purposes of this deadline, the summer session does not count.

Upon being officially informed of the challenge of grade by the Directorate of Admission and Registration, each department, under supervision of its chairperson, sets up an ad hoc committee of three faculty members to review challenged grades.

Grades may be raised or kept unchanged at the discretion of the committee and all grades reviewed accordingly are final, i.e. not subject to further review.

6.7 EXAMINATION INFORMATION AND REGULATIONS

The dates of the final examination period are specified in the Academic Calendar for each semester, which normally falls after the last day of classes. The final examination schedule is issued by the Directorate of Admission and Registration directly after the add and drop period of a specific semester.

The student personalized final examination schedule will be reflected in their course schedule in ADREG system and the full examination schedule will be posted on Ahlia University Website.

Students caught cheating will be reported to the Deanship of Student Affairs, which will deliberate through an Exam Disciplinary Committee. This process may result in the student receiving "F" grade and/or a written warning.
9. All results are published on, and can be accessed through, the ADREG Online Student Information System. Students should not contact the instructor of the course to enquire about their examinations results.
10. Invigilators are authorized to give students verbal warnings, confiscate any cheating materials, have the student moved to another examination hall, and confiscate the student's exam paper and answer sheet and escort him/her out of the examination hall.
11. Students are responsible for making themselves aware of all rules and regulations, including policies governing Student Behaviour and Conduct, and Academic Integrity (and Misconduct).
